A HUMBLE ADDRESS FROM THE CHINESE OF HONGKONG TO HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY QUEEN VICTORIA.

With profound reverence we beg to celebrate the Jubiles of the glorious reign of Her Majesty the Queen of England. Sacred indeed, we humbly think. The visitors who had spread themselves over is that Sovereign whose goodness and Queenly virtues will serve as an illustrious example for all times, and glorious indeed is that reign the grand achievements of which are of the intellect and not of the sword. When of old a virtuous ruler ascended the throne and attained to prosperous supremacy, guests assembled from the wild horders, and people of strange 'anguage ame from the remotest corners; all with songs of Empire's stability like the great mountains. Never to the people fail to look for and accept the beneficence of their gracious Sovereign; why should they be slow to express their gratitude in offerings however inadequate, and in song however poor?
